About the Author

Lucas Proudfoot is a multi-platform storyteller, sharing stories through his music, books, live performances and TV appearances, and is on a mission to inspire and educate as many children across the nation as possible.

Cementing himself as one of the nation's most versatile children's performers, Lucas Proudfoot has been playing guitar, didgeridoo and stomp box to over 120,000 kids each year. He has been touring the country with his cultural show, Circular Rhythm for over 10 years, delivering an entertaining and contemporary Indigenous Australian music experience.

He has recently achieved the following accomplishments:

- Lucas was recently invited as a special guest on Australia's favourite children's program ABC Play School, where he performed four original songs as part of the program's 'Music in Me' series
- Booked out for live shows nationally year on year with over 250+ shows booked, performing to over 120,000 kids each year
- Has published a five-part book series titled The Proud Foots, which is published by one of Australia's leading education publishers
- Headline and guest appearances at a number of writers' festivals including the Sydney Writers' Festival, Byron Writers Festival, Whitsundays Voices Literature Festival, Kimberly Writers Festival and Somerset Storyfest, Australia's premier youth literature festival based in Queensland
- Over the years he shared stages alongside a host of Australia's most renowned children performers including Hi5, Justine Clarke, ay Laga'aia and Yo Gabba Gabba.

Lucas Proudfoot is committed to sharing stories through his music and his books, with the intention of inspiring young people to learn more about Indigenous cultures and the diversity and vibrancy they bring to our communities. His colourful career and life shows a true reflection of his undying passions and incredible talent. He has been a cultural performer for over 20 years, delivering powerful messages on a range of topics and capturing the hearts of students, teachers and parents across Australia.
