Starstruck Rosebank Students at Byron Ballet's production of Peter and the Wolf

Dear Parents

Wall-to-wall fun at Rosebank PS this week. Not content with dynamic classroom learning, we've ramped up the excitement with a Chess Tournament, a Big Day Out to the Ballet and our Annual Book Parade. Thank you so much to everyone who helped to make these special events happen: The parents who offered lifts to the tournament, those who came along as parent supervisors on our excursion, and those who made AMAZING costumes for the Book Parade.

HEALTH ALERT: Hand, Foot and Mouth Disease

There have been two reported cases of Hand, Foot and Mouth Disease in our school over the past week. This is generally a very mild illness, but highly contagious, so children who show symptoms of the disease should be kept at home until all blisters disappear. I've attached a fact sheet for all families, so that you can keep an eye out for symptoms. Should your child come down with this illness, please let us know. Please also be aware that head lice are still about at our school – some families have had to treat their children weekly, so if we can all be vigilant about checking and treating each Friday, we could lighten the load for everyone.

BOOK PARADE

Our Annual Book Parade was as amazing as ever. There were so many fantastic costumes, best dressed was hotly contested. The People's Vote this year went to Oliver (Kindy), Jethro (Year 3) and William (Year 5), who came as Zorro, Tomness and Captain Jack Sparrow. There were lots of other absolute beauties, however, with some other teacher favourites included below. More photos on our web site. Book Fair continues until this Friday 27th May, with books available for purchase until then. Please finalise any outstanding payments by then, so we can finalise the fair at the same time we return the materials. Something to mention...Book vouchers are a gift to each child and are only to be spent on books, with one book per voucher. As money spent out on vouchers comes out of profits, we have to be thoughtful about how this money is spent.

SMALL SCHOOLS SOCCER NEWS

A note has gone home with today's newsletter about our gala Soccer Day next Friday.

Coming home...

Rosebank 'Old Girl' Theresa Kellett has been with us this week, doing some work experience. Theresa has been a big help in the classroom and with Book Fair and it has been very special to have her back again.
