*The role of a creative leader is not to have all the ideas;
it's to create a culture where everyone can have ideas and feel that they're valued.*

Rosebank's BIG Night Out

Heartfelt appreciation for your tremendous support of our Parent Information Evening.

We hope you learned some things about how we will be working with your child this year and that you also had an opportunity to ask questions and contribute thoughts and ideas.

We have an ideas board in the foyer if you would like to provide us with some information, ideas or reading to help our professional learning and planning for Bush School. Everyone's ideas are welcome and solicited.

I will meet with anyone who would like to talk about their ideas and a little down the track we'll meet to draft a Charter of Guiding Principles for our new endeavour. In this, we will look to the great traditions of nature education around the world, but also into our own hearts and minds to decide what is right for our community. We look forward to your input.

Welcome to Country

Will happen....but not this week. I messed up and in the rush of planning Info Night, didn't communicate properly with those helping organise. Will sort and get back to you, with a date TBC when Abigail is better.

Welcome Incoming P&C

It was a bumper AGM (amazing what a Nicky and Dave dinner can do), and we were grateful for the generosity of all parents, especially those who have put their hand up to do a job. The 2017 P&C executive is:

President: Peter Rankin
 VP/President's Apprentice: Melissa Loveday
 Secretary: Kate Bolam
 Treasurer: Matt Bolam
 Uniforms: Ben Van Kleef
 Canteen: Layla Tan
 Canteen Books: Kate Middleton
 Fundraising: Amelia Lee

What a great crew! Thank you so much!

Housekeeping

Answers to questions about uniform policy etc that weren't forthcoming Tuesday night may be found in our Rosebank A-Z handbook, which is stored on our website. Now that Mim Burgess is settled into her routines and our new initiatives are up and running, we'll update...but in the meantime, it's a good place for information about school uniform, behaviour expectations etc
